Forms rules: Traditional and open forms divisions will be put together. (Note: This does not include Wushu) Competitors will be observed for the following: Solid stances, powerful movement (hard or soft), overall coordinated and balanced movement and level of complexity.

Sparring rules: Only light contact to the head and body, both front and sides of the gear and face mask will be permitted. If under 18, a face mask is required. Over 18 light face contact is allowed. Sweeping the front foot, boot to boot, is also allowed but not the supporting leg. Other than that, there is no contact permitted below the belt or sash. This includes leg kicks. You get one warning for too much contact or breaking a rule, your 2nd warning equals a round awarded to your opponent. Your 3rd warning may equal losing the match depending on severity and the judges discretion.

Permissible techniques include: Punches, kicks, blocks (including hooks) and boot to boot sweeps are allowed. No holding or continuous grappling is allowed. Knees and elbows are also not permitted as strikes.

Match structure: The sparring will be continuous for 3 rounds. Each round will last 30 seconds. You must win 2 out of 3 rounds to be the winner of the match. This is decided by the judge or judges.

Gear requirement: You must have sparring gloves (not just bag gloves), foot pads that cover the toes completely, shin guards, a mouth piece, chest guard, headgear and groin cup for males. (If you are 18 and older you may opt out of the face mask, chest guard and shin guards).
